

Relieve yourself from this!

Smart marketers use our automated phone calls to accomplish goals that would normally be impossible with your current staff.

Do you have the personnel and time to call thousands of people each day to see if they are interested in your products?

Let us do the work for you

So you don't have to

Low set-up fees, No contracts, No monthly minimums.

No costly set-up fees and minimum call commitments with Robo Talker's voice and voice mail broadcasting. A one-time fee of $29.00 gets you started and enables you to make as much calls as you want. No contract requirements, no penalties for cancellations and no product commitments.

Pricing for services

No-charge policy for unsuccessful calls (i.e. busy, unanswered calls). Charges apply for successfully delivered calls (human and machine answered). We also display your number on caller ID so customers can quickly call back. We also allow users at anytime during the message to hit the "#" or "1" sign on their phone to be instantly connected to their office.

RoboTalker emails you a delivery report.

Results from delivery status and survey questions are clearly displayed. You will receive an email report graphically listing both the calls dialed and answer results for you to keep track of your account.

Only successful calls are billed to your account every month. Voice messages can be up to two minutes in length. We bill you as per minute used or you can buy blocks to lower your cost. It's simple, the more calls you make, the less you pay.
